Plan: Public Employees Pension Plan

DAVID D AMAYA

Dear DAVID AMAYA

The Public Employees Pension Plan (PEPP) has received notice of the death of David D Amaya. Please accept our sincere condolences.

As a named beneficiary you are entitled to approximately $218,059.53 which is 100% of the account balance. This will be paid as a cash payment less withholding tax. The exact amount will be calculated on the date of payment.

Our records indicate David had a marital status of Single. If David was legally married or living common-law at the time of death, the surviving spouse would be entitled to the remaining account balance. If this is the case, please contact our office.

The enclosed Statement on death provides up-to-date information about the pension account. Within 60 days please review the statement and provide us with:

1. a certified true copy of the official Death Certificate issued by Vital Statistics or the funeral director's Statement of Death, or the original document; and
2. a completed Declaration Upon Member's Death form (enclosed).

The money will be released once all documentation is received. In the meantime it will remain invested as it is currently.

Please contact us if you have any questions.

Sincerely

PEPP Administration
